INTRODUCTION

This is Not a Safe Book

Most of us learned how to pray by asking God to keep us safe, help us sleep, bless our food, and fix our problems. That's fine, but it's not the kind of prayer that changes the world. Or changes us.

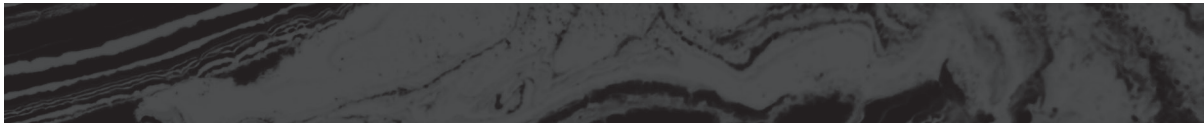

This is a book about dangerous prayers. Not reckless. Not careless. But bold. Disruptive. Honest. The kind that pull us out of routine religion and into real relationship.

Each day, we're going to walk through a chapter in the Gospel of Luke and find one moment that demands a response. Then we'll respond with a dangerous prayer. One that might make you uncomfortable. One that will move heaven and stretch you.

You don't need to be perfect. You don't need fancy words. You just need to be willing. So pray with fire. Pray with faith. Pray like your life, and the lives of others, depend on it.

Because they do.

Let's go.

GOD NEVER INTENDED FAITH TO BE COMPLICATED

Are you looking for an uncomplicated Bible translation—without all the “thees,” “thys,” and “thous” of old English? Something clear, easy to read, and actually enjoyable?

Download the Uncomplicated App for free.

This app will help you read through the book of Luke in the Bible with ease. You can follow along chapter by chapter, and if reading isn’t your thing, there’s even an audio option so you can listen on the go. The app is completely free and packed with features to make the Bible more approachable.

WANT TO GO DEEPER?

There’s also an upgraded version with a subscription that unlocks bonus content—including a daily podcast with Justice and Maria for each chapter of Luke. It’s a perfect next step if you’re hungry for more insight, more clarity, and more depth. Every subscription helps us reach our goal of giving away 2,000 free Bibles in 2025 so you’re not just investing in your own faith—you’re planting the Word of God in someone else’s hands too.

DAY 1

God Still Speaks

READ: LUKE 1

Before Jesus ever enters the scene, God is already shaking things up. After 400 years of silence, the angel Gabriel appears to Zechariah with a wild message: his prayers have been heard, and he will have a son—John the Baptist—who will prepare the way for the Lord. Zechariah is overwhelmed. He's old. His wife is barren. And yet, God interrupts the ordinary with something supernatural.

This is where bold prayer begins: with the belief that God still speaks, still moves, and still answers, even when it feels too late, too impossible, or too quiet. Zechariah prayed, but he didn't expect an answer like this. We do the same. We pray small, safe prayers because we've stopped expecting God to actually show up.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

"God, interrupt my doubt. Speak into my silence.
And do the impossible in my life."

Luke 1 reminds us that God isn't finished. He's just getting started.

TODAY'S CHALLENGE

Don't just go through the motions of prayer. Ask God to speak, and expect Him to answer.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

DANGEROUS EXPECTATION

God, I believe You still speak.

Even when I've gone silent.
Even when I've stopped expecting.

I admit I've settled for safe prayers.
I've protected myself from disappointment.

But not anymore.

Today, I'm asking You to interrupt my life.

Wake up what has fallen asleep in me.
Speak to what feels dead, and stir it back to life.

Even if I doubt like Zechariah, speak anyway.

Even if it seems too late, move anyway.

Let my life be a place where Your voice is loud and Your Spirit is free.

I'm not just praying to feel better.

I'm praying to be changed.

So here I am. Speak, Lord.

I'm listening.

Amen.

DAY 2

Make Room

READ: LUKE 2

The Savior of the world was born in a feeding trough because there was no room in the inn. The King of kings, wrapped in cloth, was laid in a manger because no one had space for Him.

Luke 2 is not just a Christmas story. It is a gut check. When Jesus shows up, will I make room?

We cram our lives full of noise, hurry, and hustle. We squeeze God into leftover time, leftover energy, and leftover space. But Jesus doesn't come to fit into our schedule. He comes to take over. He doesn't ask for an hour. He asks for our hearts.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

"Jesus, I make room for You."

That means rearranging things. Clearing out clutter. Prioritizing His presence. Because He is not looking for a place to visit. He is looking for a place to dwell.

TODAY'S CHALLENGE

Take fifteen minutes to shut everything off—no phone, no noise—and be still. Invite Jesus into your real, messy, unfiltered life.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

MAKE MY LIFE A MANGER

Jesus, You deserve more than my leftovers.

I don't want to be so full of everything else that there is no room left for You.

I open the door. I make space.

Come into the places I have kept too busy,
too distracted, or too ashamed to invite You.

You chose a manger then. Choose my heart now.

I want You to be more than part of my life.

I want You to be Lord of it.

Rearrange whatever You want.

Clear out what doesn't belong.

Make my heart a home where You are welcome,
wanted, and worshiped.

You don't need a perfect place. Just a surrendered one.

So here I am. I make room.

Amen.

DAY 3

Burn the Backup Plan

READ: LUKE 3

John the Baptist wasn't interested in polite religion. He preached in the wilderness, not in the temple. His message was simple and strong: "Repent. Turn around. Bear fruit that proves your life is changing."

He didn't call people to feel better. He called them to change. Real repentance is not just about saying sorry. It is about surrendering control. And when people asked what they should do, John gave specific instructions: share your possessions, stop cheating people, be content with your wages. In other words, live differently.

It is easy to follow Jesus with a backup plan, just in case. To pray, but still cling to control. To repent, but not actually turn around.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

"God, I don't want half-changed habits.
I want a fully surrendered life."

TODAY'S CHALLENGE

What is one thing you have been holding back? Give it to God today—for real. No plan B.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

I BURN THE BACKUP PLAN

God, I don't want a halfway faith.
I'm tired of praying with one hand open and one hand clenched.
I'm laying it all down.
I burn the backup plan.
No more safety nets. No more excuses.
No more halfway obedience.
I repent, and I turn.
Change how I think. Change how I speak.
Change how I live.
I don't just want to sound saved.
I want to live transformed.
Make my life the kind of fruit that proves You are real.
I trust You with everything. I hold nothing back.
Today, I go all in.
Amen.

DAY 4

Fight Back

READ: LUKE 4

Before Jesus ever preached a sermon or performed a miracle, He was led into the wilderness to be tested. For forty days, Satan tempted Him. But every time, Jesus fought back with the Word of God.

Temptation does not mean you are weak. It means you are human. But you do not have to fight unarmed. Jesus shows us how to win: respond with the Word. Not with feelings. Not with willpower. With truth.

When you are under pressure, what comes out of you? Fear? Shame? Or Scripture?

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

“God, make me dangerous to the enemy. Teach me to fight back with truth, with boldness, and with power.”

And not just for my sake, but for others who are under attack too.

TODAY'S CHALLENGE

Choose a verse that speaks to your biggest struggle right now. Memorize it. Make it your sword.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

I FIGHT BACK WITH TRUTH

Jesus, You did not run from the fight.
You stood Your ground.

So today, I do the same.

I come against every lie with Your Word.

I silence every voice of shame, fear, and doubt with what You have said.

Make me someone the enemy regrets messing with.

Give me strength when I am weak, and truth when I am tempted.

I declare that I am not alone. I am not powerless.
I am not defeated.

And I pray for my friends and family.

For those who are struggling in silence.

For those fighting secret battles.

Let Your truth break through.

Let Your Word become their weapon.

Protect them. Strengthen them.

Remind them they are not alone.

Together, we fight back.

Amen.

DAY 5

I'll Drop It All

READ: LUKE 5

Jesus stepped into Peter's boat, taught the crowd, and then told Peter to let down his nets. After a long night of catching nothing, the nets suddenly overflowed with fish. Peter was undone. He fell at Jesus' feet, and Jesus said, "From now on you will fish for people." Just like that, they left everything and followed Him.

That is the moment everything changes—when Jesus proves He is more than a teacher. When He meets you in your ordinary life and calls you to something greater. The fish were a blessing, but they were not the point. The call was.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

"Jesus, if You say the word, I'll drop it all."

That means leaving comfort behind. Trusting Him more than success. Following Him even when it costs you everything.

TODAY'S CHALLENGE

Ask yourself, "What have I been holding on to that might be holding me back?" Then pray with open hands.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

I'LL DROP IT ALL TO FOLLOW YOU

Jesus, You could have walked past my boat, but You stepped in.

You see me. You speak to me. You call me.

And I do not want to miss You because I am clinging to comfort.

If You say the word, I will drop the net.

I will walk away from what is safe.

I will let go of what I thought I needed.

I want You more than success, more than security, and more than staying the same.

And I pray for the people around me.

My friends, my family, my church.

Call them out of the boat. Speak to them in a way they cannot ignore.

Give them courage to drop what is holding them back.

Let us be a generation that does not play it safe.

We will follow You boldly.

Whatever it takes. Wherever You lead.

Amen.

DAY 6

Flip My Heart

READ: LUKE 6

Jesus preached a radical message: love your enemies, bless those who curse you, and pray for people who hurt you. He flipped the world's values upside down. He said, "If you only love those who love you back, what credit is that to you?"

This is not weakness. It is warfare. Forgiveness, kindness, and generosity are spiritual weapons. Jesus is not calling us to be passive. He is calling us to be powerful in a different way.

But let's be honest—it is hard. Loving people who have hurt you takes supernatural strength.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

"Jesus, flip my heart. Make me dangerous with love."

Not soft. Not silent. But fierce in forgiveness, relentless in mercy, and unshakable in grace.

TODAY'S CHALLENGE

Think of someone who has been hard to love. Pray for them by name. Ask God to bless them—and mean it.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

FLIP MY HEART

Jesus, I want to live like You.
Not just love the lovable, but the difficult.
Not just bless my friends, but my enemies.
That does not come naturally. So flip my heart.
Break the cycle of bitterness in me.
Heal what hurts. Remove what hardens.
Teach me how to fight with kindness.
Make me dangerous with love.

And I pray for those who have wronged me.
Bless them, God.
Heal what is broken in them.
Set them free from whatever made them hurt others.
And if You want to use me in that healing,
I am willing.
Let my life be proof that grace wins.
Amen.

DAY 7

Just Say the Word

READ: LUKE 7

A Roman centurion sent word to Jesus because his servant was sick and dying. But instead of asking Jesus to come in person, the centurion said something unexpected: “Just say the word, and my servant will be healed.” Jesus was amazed and said, “I haven’t seen faith like this in all of Israel.”

This was not ordinary belief. It was bold belief. The centurion understood what authority meant. He recognized that Jesus did not need to show up physically. His word alone had power.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

“Jesus, just say the word, and I will believe.”

No conditions. No need for proof. Just simple, strong faith that God’s authority still heals, still delivers, and still speaks life, even from a distance.

TODAY’S CHALLENGE

Speak life over someone today. Send a text, make a call, or pray for someone who is hurting. Believe that God will move, even if you are not physically present.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

JUST SAY THE WORD

Jesus, Your word is enough.
You do not need to shout or show signs.
You speak, and sickness bows. Storms calm.
Chains fall.
I believe in Your authority.

Say the word, and I will believe.
Say the word, and fear must leave.
Say the word, and healing will begin.
Say the word, and faith will rise.

I lift up the ones who are hurting.
My family, my friends, and even strangers in need of a miracle.
I speak healing over them in Your name.
I declare breakthrough, freedom, and hope.
You do not need to be in the room.
You only need to be invited.
So I invite You now. Move, Lord.
Say the word.
Amen.

DAY 8

Interrupt Me, Jesus

READ: LUKE 8

Jesus was on His way to heal a dying girl when a woman touched the edge of His cloak. She had been bleeding for twelve years. She did not make a scene. She simply reached out in faith. And instantly, she was healed.

Jesus could have kept walking, but He stopped. He turned around and asked, “Who touched me?” In a crowd full of people bumping into Him, He noticed the one who touched Him with faith.

Jesus welcomes interruptions, especially from those who are desperate for Him.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

“Interrupt me, Jesus. I do not want to miss You because I am too busy moving.”

And just as Jesus noticed her, we ask Him to help us notice others who are quietly reaching out, hoping someone will stop and see them.

TODAY’S CHALLENGE

Ask God to interrupt your routine today. Look for someone to bless, encourage, or help, even if it slows you down.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

INTERRUPT ME, JESUS

Jesus, I do not want to be in such a rush that I miss You walking by.

You are not in a hurry. You are never too busy.
You stop for the broken. You pause for the desperate.
So today, I ask You to interrupt me.

Interrupt my schedule with Your presence.
Interrupt my plans with Your power.
Interrupt my comfort with Your compassion.
If You want to change my direction, then do it.

Help me notice the people around me.
The quiet ones. The hurting ones.
The ones who feel overlooked.

Let me be the one who stops, who sees,
who reaches out.

Because that is what You do.

Amen.

DAY 9

I'll Carry the Cross

READ: LUKE 9

Jesus did not sugarcoat it. He said, "If anyone wants to follow Me, they must deny themselves, take up their cross daily, and follow Me." That is not a feel-good slogan. It is a death sentence to comfort, control, and compromise.

To carry the cross is to say no to selfishness and yes to surrender. Every single day.

It is not just about dying for Jesus. It is about living for Him when it is inconvenient, unpopular, or uncomfortable.

And here is the twist. In losing your life for Jesus, you actually find it.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

"Jesus, I will carry the cross."

Not just when it is easy. Not just on Sundays. But daily, because He is worth it.

TODAY'S CHALLENGE

Identify one area where you have been choosing comfort over surrender. Lay it down today.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

I'LL CARRY THE CROSS

Jesus, You did not carry a throne. You carried a cross.

And if I want to follow You, I must do the same.

Today, I deny myself. I lay down my pride.

I pick up whatever You have called me to carry.

Help me love when it is hard.

Help me obey when it costs me.

Help me follow when the path is narrow.

I do not want an easy faith. I want a real one.

So I will carry the cross.

And I pray for others who are carrying heavy burdens.

For those feeling the weight of grief, addiction, fear, or shame.

Give them strength, God. Walk with them.

Let them know they are not alone.

And use me to help lift someone's load today.

Amen.

DAY 10

Send Me

READ: LUKE 10

Jesus sent out seventy-two followers ahead of Him. These were ordinary people, not just the twelve disciples. He said, “The harvest is great, but the workers are few. So pray for more workers.” Then He sent them. In other words, they became the answer to the prayer they had just prayed.

They did not go in their own power. Jesus gave them authority. And when they returned, they were amazed. Demons obeyed, people were healed, and lives were changed.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

“Jesus, send me.”

Not just to a stage or spotlight, but to people. To conversations. To acts of kindness. To real, messy love in action. You do not need a microphone. You need obedience.

TODAY'S CHALLENGE

Ask God, “Where are You sending me today?” Then step into it, whether it is a conversation, a text, or a moment to serve.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

SEND ME

Jesus, I do not want to pray safe prayers.

I want to be part of what You are doing.

So here I am. Send me.

To my neighborhood, my school,
my workplace, my city.

Make me bold enough to speak, brave enough to go,
and humble enough to serve.

Open my eyes to the harvest around me.

Do not let me miss divine moments because I am too busy or distracted.

I pray for every person You place in my path today.
Give me the words, the compassion, and the courage.

Let my life preach louder than any sermon.

Use me to bring healing, truth, and hope.

This life is not mine. It is Yours.

So send me.

Amen.

DAY 11

Teach Me to Pray

READ: LUKE 11

The disciples had seen Jesus perform miracles, cast out demons, and walk on water. But the one thing they asked Him to teach was this: “Lord, teach us to pray.”

Why? Because they understood that everything Jesus did flowed from His connection with the Father.

Jesus did not give them a formula. He gave them a model: “Our Father...”

Prayer begins with relationship, not performance. Then He told them to keep asking, seeking, and knocking. Do not quit. Be bold. Be persistent. Be real.

Prayer is not magic. It is movement—of your heart toward God and of heaven toward earth.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

“Jesus, teach me to pray like You did.”

Not just to recite words, but to release power.

TODAY’S CHALLENGE

Set aside five minutes to pray without asking for anything. Simply connect with God as your Father.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

TEACH ME TO PRAY

Jesus, I want to pray like You did.
Not just say words, but move heaven.
Not just talk about prayer, but live in it.
Teach me to see God as Father, not as a distant judge.
Teach me to ask boldly, seek faithfully,
and knock persistently.

Let prayer be the first thing I run to, not my last resort.
Teach me how to listen, not just speak.
How to surrender, not just request.

And I pray for those who do not know how to pray.
For those who feel distant from God,
who feel unworthy to speak to Him.
Draw them close. Show them Your heart.
Let them know You hear, You care, and You answer.
Make us a people of dangerous, Spirit-filled prayer.
Amen.

DAY 12

Break My Fear of People

READ: LUKE 12

Jesus says it clearly in Luke 12, “Do not be afraid of those who can kill the body. Fear God instead.” He is not calling us to live in terror. He is speaking about fear in terms of priority. Who are you trying to please?

Many of us live for the approval of people. We hide our faith, shrink our calling, and silence our voice because we are afraid of what others might think.

But people do not hold your eternity. God does. And if He sees every sparrow and counts every hair on your head, then He is not just powerful. He is personal.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

“Break my fear of people.”

Set me free from the need to be liked. Make me bold to live for You.

TODAY'S CHALLENGE

Share your faith in some way today—through words, online, or in action. Do not overthink it. Just be bold.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

BREAK MY FEAR OF PEOPLE

God, I care too much about what people think.
I have stayed quiet when I should have spoken up.
I have played it safe when I should have stood out.
Today I ask You to break the fear of people off of me.

Set me free from the need for approval.
I do not want to live for applause.
I want to live for obedience.
You see me. You value me. You know me completely.
So I choose to live for an audience of One.

I pray for others who are hiding their faith.
Give them courage to shine in dark places.
Give them words when they feel nervous.
Let a holy boldness rise in this generation.

We will not be ashamed.

We will not back down.

We are Yours.

Amen.

DAY 13

Dig Around Me

READ: LUKE 13

Jesus tells a parable about a fruitless fig tree. The owner wants to cut it down, but the gardener says, "Give it one more year. Let me dig around it and fertilize it. If it bears fruit, great. If not, then we will cut it down."

This is mercy in action. The tree is not producing, but it is not written off. The gardener believes that with some digging and intentional care, something can still grow.

Maybe you feel stuck. Maybe your growth feels slow or your fruit is missing. But God is not done with you. He is the Gardener who says, "Let me dig around you. Let Me do some work."

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

"Jesus, dig around me. Do what You need to do so I can bear fruit."

That means letting Him stir the soil, remove what is choking the roots, and bring you back to life.

TODAY'S CHALLENGE

Take time to reflect. Where in your life have you been spiritually stuck? Invite God to dig there.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

DIG AROUND ME

Jesus, You are not afraid of my dry places.

You do not give up when growth is slow.

You dig. You tend. You invest.

So do that in me.

Dig around my heart.

Break up the hard places.

Pull up the weeds of distraction, sin, and fear.

Fertilize what feels weak and worn out.

I pray for others who feel stuck.

Let them know they are not a lost cause.

Revive what has been dormant.

Speak life into what looks dead.

Do the deep work in all of us, Lord,

So we can bear fruit that lasts.

Amen.

DAY 14

Humble Me

READ: LUKE 14

Jesus watched people rush to take the best seats at a dinner party, and He called them out. He said, “Those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”

Then He went deeper. He said, “When you throw a party, invite people who cannot pay you back.” In other words, do good for people who bring you no personal gain. That is real kingdom love.

Pride wants recognition. Humility makes room for others.

In a world obsessed with platforms, status, and image, Jesus calls us lower. And that is where the blessing is found—not in being seen, but in being surrendered.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

“Humble me, Lord.”

Not to tear me down, but to build something stronger. Faith that does not need applause. Love that is not selfish. Service that looks like Jesus.

TODAY’S CHALLENGE

Serve someone today without them knowing. Let it be just between you and God.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

HUMBLE ME, LORD

Jesus, You had every right to be honored.
Yet You knelt. You served. You washed feet.
Teach me to do the same.

Humble me, not to shame me,
But to free me from the pressure to prove myself.
Make me comfortable being unseen.
Make me secure in who I am in You.

Let me love without expecting anything in return.
Let me serve without needing thanks.
Let me sit in the low place,
Because that is where You are.

I pray for the proud, the competitive, and the ones tired of performing.
Break the chains of comparison and ego.
Make us a people of humility, joy,
and deep security in You.
Amen.

DAY 15

Break My Heart for the Lost

READ: LUKE 15

Luke 15 captures the heart of the Gospel through three unforgettable stories—a lost sheep, a lost coin, and a lost son. In each story, something of great value goes missing, and someone drops everything to go after it.

Jesus is not casual about the lost. He is urgent, relentless, and full of joy when even one person comes home. He is the kind of Savior who runs toward broken people, wraps them in grace, and throws a celebration instead of a lecture.

That is the heart we need. Not judgment. Not apathy. Compassion that moves us.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

“Jesus, break my heart for the lost.”

Let me care like You do. Let me drop everything to reach someone who needs You.

TODAY’S CHALLENGE

Reach out to someone who feels far from God. Send a message, invite them to church, or simply let them know they are seen and loved.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

BREAK MY HEART FOR THE LOST

Jesus, do not let me get used to people being far from You.

Break my heart for what breaks Yours.

Let me feel the urgency You feel.

Help me see every person as valuable—worth the search, worth the time, and worth the cost.

Tear down my indifference.

Remove my fear of rejection.

Make me bold. Make me loving.

Make me relentless in grace.

I pray for every lost one.

My friends, my family, the ones who are running,
and the ones who are hiding.

Call them home. Chase them down.

Show them You are not angry with them.

Show them You miss them.

And if You can use me to help bring them home, here I am.

Amen.

DAY 16

Trust Me with True Riches

READ: LUKE 16

Jesus tells a story about a shrewd manager who gets fired and quickly works the system to secure his future. Then Jesus makes a bold statement, "If you cannot be trusted with worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches?"

In the Kingdom of God, money is a test. It is not just about how much you have. It is about how you handle what you have been given. Do you serve money, or does your money serve God?

Jesus is not afraid to talk about stewardship, because He knows this truth: your heart always follows your treasure. If He can trust you with what is temporary, He will trust you with what is eternal.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

"Jesus, trust me with true riches."

Teach me to manage my money, time, and influence in a way that honors You and impacts others.

TODAY'S CHALLENGE

Take a bold step of generosity today. Give, share, or invest in someone without expecting anything in return.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

TRUST ME WITH TRUE RICHES

Jesus, You own it all.

Everything I have is on loan from You.

Help me handle it well.

Teach me to be generous instead of greedy.

Faithful instead of fearful.

A Kingdom investor instead of a selfish consumer.

Trust me with true riches.

With influence. With opportunity. With purpose.

Let my money serve Your mission.

Let my life echo into eternity.

I pray for those who are burdened by finances today.

Provide for their needs.

Surprise them with favor.

Show them that You are their Source.

Help me be part of the answer to someone else's prayer.

Amen.

DAY 17

Increase My Faith

READ: LUKE 17

The disciples ask Jesus something raw and honest, “Lord, increase our faith.” They said this after Jesus told them to forgive repeatedly, even when it feels impossible. They knew they could not do it in their own strength.

Jesus responded, “If you have faith the size of a mustard seed.” He was not asking for big, flashy faith, but real faith. Faith that obeys. Faith that acts. Faith that trusts, even when it is hard.

You do not need more hype. You need more depth. And that is what Jesus grows in you—faith that holds on, even when feelings fade.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

“Lord, increase my faith.”

Grow something strong in me. Something unshakable.

TODAY'S CHALLENGE

Forgive someone today, even if they do not deserve it. Let that be your act of faith.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

INCREASE MY FAITH

Lord, I do not need bigger faith. I need deeper faith.

Faith that obeys when it is hard.

Faith that forgives when it hurts.

Faith that keeps showing up when nothing changes.

Increase my faith, not just for miracles,

But for Monday mornings.

For the quiet moments.

For the hard conversations.

Root me deep in who You are, not how I feel.

Stretch me. Grow me.

Make me faithful in the little things.

I pray for those who are running low on faith today.

Strengthen them.

Remind them that even mustard-seed faith moves mountains.

Let none of us quit before the harvest comes.

Amen.

DAY 18

Don't Let Me Quit

READ: LUKE 18

Jesus tells a story about a persistent widow who keeps coming to a corrupt judge until she finally receives justice. Then He says, "Will not God bring justice for His chosen ones who cry out to Him day and night?"

The message is clear. Do not give up. Keep praying.

God is not annoyed by your persistence. He is moved by it.

Faith does not always look like shouting or shaking the room. Sometimes it looks like not quitting. Praying one more time. Showing up one more day. Trusting again after disappointment.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

"Lord, do not let me quit."

Build grit in me. Make me unshakable. Teach me to pray through, not just pray once.

TODAY'S CHALLENGE

Bring back to God one prayer you have stopped praying. Knock again.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

DON'T LET ME QUIT

Lord, I have been tempted to quit.

To stop asking. To stop believing.

But today, I rise up again.

Not in my strength, but in Yours.

You are not a distant judge. I know You as Father.

So I come boldly. I come consistently.

I will not stop asking. I will not stop knocking.

Not because I am strong, but because You are good.

Build endurance in me.

Teach me how to stand when I want to sit down.

How to believe when everything says no.

How to trust when the answer has not come.

I pray for others who are weary.

Lift them up.

Infuse them with hope.

Let us be a people who pray until breakthrough comes.

Amen.

DAY 19

Come Into My House

READ: LUKE 19

Zacchaeus was a wealthy and corrupt tax collector, hated by everyone. But he wanted to see Jesus. So he climbed a tree just to catch a glimpse. Jesus stopped, looked up, and said, “Zacchaeus, come down. I must stay at your house today.”

That is the scandal of grace. Jesus does not wait for you to get your act together. He walks right into your mess and calls it home.

Zacchaeus did not clean the house first. He simply welcomed Jesus in, and everything changed.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

“Jesus, come into my house.”

Into every room of my life. Not just the public spaces, but the hidden, private, and messy places too.

TODAY'S CHALLENGE

Take ten minutes today to invite Jesus into a part of your life you usually keep closed off—your finances, relationships, thought life, or anything else you tend to keep guarded.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

COME INTO MY HOUSE

Jesus, I do not want to just see You from a distance.

I want You close.

So today, I open the door.

Come into my house.

Into my real life, not the filtered version.

Come into my schedule, my habits, and my thoughts.

Come into the rooms I have kept locked.

Come into the places I have hidden out of fear or shame.

You do not run from mess. You redeem it.

Change whatever You want.

Flip the tables. Rearrange the furniture.

Make this house a home for You.

I pray for others who feel unworthy to receive You.

Call them by name. Look them in the eye.

Remind them that You do not come to condemn.

You come to stay.

Amen.

DAY 20

Give Me Eyes to See

READ: LUKE 20-21

As Jesus teaches in the temple during His final days, He warns the people not to be deceived, not to be distracted, and not to be caught off guard. He speaks about false teachers, coming persecution, and the end of the age. These are heavy topics, but they are not meant to scare us. They are meant to wake us up.

While others were admiring the temple's beauty, Jesus saw what was about to come. While others were making large donations for show, Jesus noticed a poor widow giving her last two coins. He said she gave more than all the rest.

It is not about how things look. It is about what is real. Jesus calls us to live with eyes wide open—watching, praying, giving, and serving. We are not meant to sleepwalk through life.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

"Jesus, give me eyes to see."

Let me see what You see. Let me notice what others miss. Let me live like eternity is real—because it is.

TODAY'S CHALLENGE

Slow down today. Notice someone you usually overlook. Pray for them, and if possible, serve them in a meaningful way.

Dangerous Prayers

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

GIVE ME EYES TO SEE

Jesus, open my eyes.
Help me see beyond the surface.
Let me care more about obedience than image.
More about the eternal than the urgent.

I do not want to miss what You are doing because I am distracted.
I do not want to be fooled by what looks impressive but lacks heart.
Teach me to notice like You do.
The hurting. The humble. The honest.

I pray for those who feel unseen.
Remind them they matter.
Let them feel Your eyes on them,
full of love and not judgment.
Make me someone who sees with compassion instead of comparison.
Use me to point people to what is real,
what is lasting, and what is true.

Amen.

DAY 21

Make Me a Witness

READ: LUKE 22-24

In just three chapters, everything changes.

Jesus is betrayed, beaten, crucified—and then He rises. The cross was not the end. The grave did not win. And now, the invitation is not just to believe in Jesus. It is to follow Him. When the tomb is empty, nothing stays the same.

Luke ends with Jesus appearing to His disciples and saying, “You are witnesses of these things.”

In other words, do not just celebrate the resurrection. Carry it. Live like death has no power. Speak like hope is alive.

Live like Jesus is with you—because He is.

HERE IS THE DANGEROUS PRAYER:

“Jesus, make me a witness.”

Not someone who watches from a distance, but someone who walks in resurrection power and leads others to life.

TODAY’S CHALLENGE

Share your story with someone this week. Even a small part of what Jesus has done in you can change everything for someone else.

Dangerous Prayers

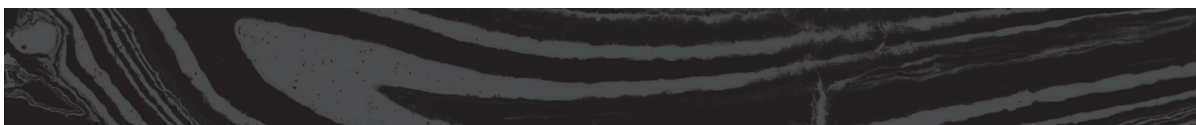

PRAY THIS PRAYER OUT LOUD

MAKE ME A WITNESS

Jesus, You did not stay in the grave.
And I will not stay in fear.
You rose in power. So raise me up to live boldly.

Make me a witness.
Not just someone who believes,
but someone who shows and tells.
Let my life reflect Your cross and Your victory.

Use my story, scars and all, to bring hope to others.
Let resurrection power flow through my words,
my hands, and my heart.
I pray for every person who does not yet know You.
Open their eyes. Chase them down with grace.
Use me, God. I do not want to watch from the sidelines.
I want to walk in step with You until the whole world knows.
Amen.

More Dangerous

NOW THAT YOU'VE PRAYED DANGEROUSLY...

You didn't just finish a devotional. You stepped into a fight. You opened your heart. You let go of comfort, control, and casual faith. You prayed prayers that shook the gates of hell—and Heaven heard every word.

These 21 days weren't about checking a box. They were about awakening. Awakening bold faith. Awakening dangerous love. Awakening a life that doesn't just believe in Jesus—but looks like Him, walks with Him, and moves through the world with power.

But this is not the end. This is the beginning of a lifestyle. A lifestyle of prayer that doesn't settle for comfort but contends for breakthrough. A lifestyle that doesn't retreat when it gets hard, but presses in deeper. A lifestyle that believes prayer doesn't just change things—it changes us.

WHAT'S NEXT?

1. Lead someone else through this journey.

You were never meant to walk alone. Invite a friend, a small group, your spouse, your church, or your team to go through these 21 days. Make disciples who don't just pray—but pray dangerously.

2. Keep going with the 21 Days of Momentum in the book of John.

Available now on the Uncomplicated App, this next step includes a daily podcast and three simple, powerful challenges you must complete each day before moving forward. It's more than a study. It's a momentum builder for your spiritual life.

YOU'VE BEEN MARKED BY HEAVEN.

Your story is not over. Your prayer life is not finished. You've been reshaped, reawakened, and re-commissioned.

So step into your calling. Stay dangerous. And never stop praying like everything depends on it—because it does.

Go live it. Go lead it.
Go be dangerous.
